"Feeding God's Starving Children Hungry in Body and Spirit" is the mission of FMSC which was founded in 1987. Their approach is simple: volunteers of all ages hand-pack nutritious meals for severely malnourished children. The meals are distributed by missionary partners in over 55 countries to children who need it the most in orphanages, schools and relief centers.

Bethel United Methodist Church members and our many friends have been volunteering two hours a week to help FMSC achieve their mission of feeding God's starving children. We invite you, your family and / or friends to join us at the FMSC location in Chanhassen, MN on any of the above listed dates.
